CORRESPONDENCE.

GLEN MARY, TENN., Dec. 12th.

Previous announcement of our church entertainment, the event of the evening in the papers, together with the posted bills, had amply advertised the programme, and as was manifest by the countenances of passers by, something of a decidedly fine character was anticipated. Promptly at a quarter of seven the doors were thrown open to admit the eager crowd that thronged the entrance. A word or two about the interior of the building would not be amiss. One is at once struck with the good sense displayed in the designing of the new house, which this evening chieftains. From floor to ceiling, from entrance to rear, the proportions and finish seem finely adapted to the perfect transmission of every sound, the demonstration of which, during the evening, was beyond a doubt. With its tinted walls and ceiling, and high windows of a neat design, the whole place wears an aspect of grace and beauty which one often notices, though perhaps more on a nearer approach to city life than elsewhere among our mountains. The stage which occupies the rear end of the building was tastefully draped and festooned with red, white and blue bunting. Several large paintings of appropriate design occupied conspicuous places. The general appearance of the stage was well calculated to add to the scenes that were enacted there. As the audience was being seated the orchestra dissonated fine music, which carried us back when Thomas, Gilmore, Reeves and hosts of other noted orchestras have entertained eager hearers. At 7 1/2 o'clock Mr. O. E. Waters, manager of the evening, announced the arrival of the Peakes; a family historically connected with the famous Pike's Peak, and whose genealogy dates back to the poetical days of Milton, who by the way was of akin to the Peakes. The sisters number 13, all maidens fair and above 40. The oldest has passed the very sensibility of 54. They are all named in alphabetical order, and all the names end with a "y." The sisters proceeded to amuse the audience by singing several humorous songs, all of which were much appreciated. The sisters had a collection taken for the wear and tear of hand-boxes, and to aid them to their "fitter" place of abode. "Singing low Sweet Charity" was one of the pieces of the evening, given as a quintette. The reading by Mr. Waters "Old Peter McBride" was nicely given, followed by Mr. Molyneux in his ten o'clock song "Crowding Awkward." Mr. Molyneux part was a complete hit. His appearance coming up on the stage was better seen than described. Just from the drama shop, a perfect work, securing the offered pledge. After his song the pledge he took; he was assisted by a chorus. (Well acted John) "Over the hills to the poor house" by Miss May Waters, in costume, won for her the admiration and applause of the whole house. The trio by the Messrs. Farley brothers and Brown, with Sandy and the lads, "Old Noah once don't build de ark," was of a somewhat humorous style. The boys had to stand the laugh. Instrumental duets, violin and organ, were distributed throughout the programme. Miss Amelia Sanders, of Point Burnside, as organist, and Mr. H. A. Haines, Glen Mary, as solo violinist, contributed a talented part worthy of special mention. The programme closed with a sacred quintette, "Washed in the blood of the Lamb."

As a success in every respect the entertainment far exceeded the anticipation of the most sanguine. It is earnestly hoped by all that before long another opportunity may be offered in which to see and hear our local talent. May that be the plea at large for their numerous attendance.

Yours truly,

SCRIBLER.

Women that have been bedridden for years have been completely cured by the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Make your old things look like new by using the Diamond Dye, and you will be happy. Any of the fashionable colors for 10 cents.

No family in this broad land should undertake to keep house without John's Anodyne Liniment, many have tried to but failed. It is worth more to a family than a whole medicine chest.

The blessings of life are many. Live long and be happy. Don't neglect a cough or cold. Keep yourself well clothed in changeable weather, and always keep a bottle of Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry in the house. A single spoonful will cure an ordinary cough or cold. Its continued use will cure consumption.

The most contemptible fraud that has been practiced upon farmers and others in the last few years is the selling of inferior packs of worthless horse and cattle powders. There is only one kind now known in this country that is unadulterated and those are the Sherrill's.

HEALTH AND CLIMATE.

All health seekers, whether from Northern or Southern States, should try the climate of the Plateau. The recent United States Census shows it to be about the only district east of the Rocky Mountains, entirely free from malarial, pulmonary and intestinal diseases. The Plateau has a double climate, one resulting from latitude and the other from elevation. The air is pure and invigorating. The water is freestone, cool and sparkling. Mineral springs are numerous. The mean summer temperature is 72 deg. Fahr., and in winter 37 deg. Fahr. The nights are always cool and refreshing.

SOIL.

The soil is a sandy loam upon a mulatto clay subsoil. It is light, friable, holds moisture, is easily cultivated and responds readily and generously to the least fertilizer.

CROPS AND GRASSES.

Corn, wheat, rice, oats, and barley all grow well, though this is not claimed as a grain-growing soil. Tobacco is a profitable crop here, as also is sorghum. Hard grass, orchard grass, German and pearl millet, timothy and red clover have all been tried, and take hold and root well. Kentucky blue grass also thrives wherever introduced. The natural pasturage is abundant.

VEGETABLES.

Cabbage, cauliflower, onions, beans, sweet and Irish potatoes, all make a fine return. The Irish potatoes are unequalled by any grown in America. Sweet potatoes and onions yield 500 bushels per acre.

FRUIT AND GRAPE CULTURE.

This region is especially adapted to fruit, and particularly to the winter apple and the grape. The apple crop here has never been known to fail. The trees are healthy, and the fruit smooth, plump, juicy and firm, rarely ever spoiling or rotting. The grape is also a sure crop where proper varieties are planted. The vines are robust, and the grapes make excellent wines, which are in good demand. These two fruits are destined to become the great staple products of the Plateau.

Strawberries, blackberries, raspberries, currants, cherries, plums, and nearly all the small fruits thrive and bear profusely.

STOCK AND SHEEP RAISING.

The excellent natural pasturage, good drainage, abundance of running water and freedom from flies make these occupations eminently suitable and remunerative.

Superior stock of eight months in the year. Come south, where you can buy cheap lands, work outdoors all the winter and turn our stock to the woods most of the year.

LAND—TITLES WARRANTED AND DEFENDED.

The Board of Aid Estate, centrally situated on this plateau, consists of 33,000 acres of grazing, farming, fruit raising and vine growing lands.

IT SKIATS TEN MILES OF FRONTAGE ON THE CINCINNATI SOUTHERN RAILROAD, WITH FOUR DEPOSITS LOCATED ON IT.

The lands enumerated below are being offered in tracts suitable to all purchasers, at our agency and on a deferred payment plan. Board lands on the C. S. R. R., west of Glen Mary Station, about 3,000 acres, very desirable land fronting on the C. S. R. R., is here laid out in 100 acre farms. No farm is more than three miles from either Sunbury or Glen Mary, and the latter is adjacent to the C. S. R. R. and the C. S. R. R. and with an out-patch of twelve car loads per day. Glen Mary has 2,000 inhabitants, three stores, telegraph station and post-office, and is situated at the junction of the C. S. R. R. and the C. S. R. R. and with an out-patch of twelve car loads per day. Glen Mary has 2,000 inhabitants, three stores, telegraph station and post-office, and is situated at the junction of the C. S. R. R. and the C. S. R. R. and with an out-patch of twelve car loads per day.

Board lands on the C. S. R. R., half a mile east of Robbins Station. Splendid timbered lands; rich soil and abundant pasturage. Underlying this tract is the Robbins Coal vein. These lands will be sold for farming, grazing and mining purposes, in tracts of a size to suit purchasers.

RUGBY.
Founded in 1883, has many social advantages, viz.: two good hotels, the Church and School Building, Public Library with 4,000 volumes, Large Commercial Building, Weekly Newspaper, Post office with two mail trains daily, and also numerous good homes and attractive villa residences. Choice building lots are now being offered at very reasonable prices.

Sedgemoor, the station for the above, has also been laid out in town lots, and the Board is prepared to offer liberal inducements to persons settling there for manufacturing or business purposes. Sedgemoor has two stores and boarding houses, and promises to be a flourishing town in the near future. The C. S. R. R. has just put in a siding, 1,500 feet long.

The Board's Rugby lands comprise several tracts lying west of Rugby, in Morgan and Jefferson Counties, as well as all their territory, except Rugby and Sedgemoor and Robin's Creek. These lands are traversed by the Rugby and Sedgemoor Railroad, a graded road, seven miles long and pronounced the best dirt road in Tennessee, and are, on account of the superior communication, as accessible to the railroad as the less remote lands of the Board. They are situated on the C. S. R. R. to Uniontown, Livingston, Eliza and Uniontown, respectively in the county seats of Jefferson, Overton, Clay and Pickett counties.

CONCLUSION.

The past season has been eminently successful, as regards all farming and gardening operations, the crops being unusually full and of excellent quality. We may be an interested person to correspond with settlers now upon the ground.

Maps and plans can be seen at the Board's Office on Central Avenue. Lending settlers will be most liberally dealt with, and any information cheerfully given by
